

Wedding Yesterday At the Rozen Home.

A very quiet wedding, purposely so, because the contracting parties wanted to get well on their honeymoon trip before any of their many friends here were wise to their plans, occurred early yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Rozen, at 824 West Birch avenue, when her daughter, Miss Mary Mildred Rozen, was married to Urban James Lewis.

Only the bride's immediate family witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Judge R. J. Kidd. The bride's sister, Miss Irma Rozen, and her brother, George J. Rozen, were bridesmaid and groomsmen.

Right after the words had been spoken that made them man and wife, the newlyweds sped for the train, leaving here on No. 9 for Los Angeles, where they will remain for a week and then return to the new home Mr. Lewis has just built across from the home of his wife's parents.

Both bride and groom are well-known and popular here. Mrs. Lewis is a talented young woman and her many accomplishments have made her an important factor in Flagstaff's social life. Mr. Lewis, or "Jimmy" as his friends call him, is the junior partner in the Green-Lewis Drug Co., a capable young business man, and like his wife, a general favorite.

Exercises at Emerson.

Last Friday marked a notable day in the lives of some twelve students of the grammar grades.

Having completed eight eventful years of study and pleasure combined and having successfully passed the state examinations, these ten young people were entitled to diplomas and class colors and all the thrills attendant upon such an occasion.

Professor Richardson made a neat little presentation speech, fully impressing it upon the young people that a collection of diplomas was most commendable thing. One now, mother in four years at the completion of high school, another at college graduation, and so on until a liking for such work became a habit.

Mrs. Kennedy also made a speech in the nature of a farewell to a class in which she had taken a vast amount of interest during the year just closed, also wishing them front seats in the ninth grade next year. The class numbered ten and its personnel is as follows: Annis McGookin, Hazel Alsop, Bessie Benson, Agnes Switzer, Velma Gum, Marceana Baca, Thelma Dobbs, Mildred Dunn, Ame Amelia Noble and Ted LeBaron.

Mesdames Cameron and Sullivan Entertain Friends.

Mrs. Bert Cameron and Mrs. A. J. Sullivan were hostesses last Wednesday afternoon at the Cameron home to a very large gathering of friends, who spent the afternoon playing auction. The Cameron home lends itself delightfully to such gatherings for the rooms are spacious and on this occasion were lovely with flowers. A dainty lunch was served at the conclusion of the games and the hours passed pleasantly for the following guests: Mrs. Paul Coffin, Mrs. John Hennessey, Mrs. J. C. Kelly, Mrs. Bertha Kennedy, Mrs. Alex. Johnston, Mrs. Walter Lindblom, Mrs. R. J. Connor, Mrs. Joe Waldhaus, Mrs. M. A. Murphy, Mrs. William Babbitt, Mrs. Dayton Draine, Mrs. Ray Babbitt, Mrs. Walsh, Miss Margaret Walsh, Mrs. Gus Jakle, Mrs. Harlow Yeager, Mrs. Lou Charlebois, Mrs. B. Hock, Mrs. Sykes, Mrs. G. F. Manning, Sr., Mrs. G. F. Manning Jr., Mrs. P. C. Zinn, Mrs. Herbert Asselin, Mrs. C. B. Wilson, Mrs. Warren Perkins, Mrs. Henry Albers, Mrs. John Francis, Mrs. Burnell Osler, Mrs. Ernest Lennon, Mrs. J. D. Jackson, Mrs. Wm. Bayless, Mrs. C. P. Heisser, Mrs. William Mullen, Mrs. P. J. Moran, Mrs. Joe Tissaw, Mrs. Martin Fronske, Mrs. Kate Wisheart, Mrs. Bart, Miss Maggie Rickel, Miss Carrie Rickel, Mrs. E. H. Wheat and Mrs. J. E. Roome.

Dancing Party.

The Rickel home was the scene of a lovely dancing party last Thursday night.

Miss Minnie Rickel and Miss Frances Collins were the hostesses and the young people agree that it was an affair hard to duplicate for pleasure and all that goes with it.

The fresh, pretty gowns of the feminine portion lent beauty and color to the attractive rooms with its lovely flowers and lights to say nothing of a perfect dancing floor. The supper too was an added pleasure and the following report as present and ready for another: The Misses Barbara and Louise Rickel, who have just returned from their school duties, Miss Freda Johnson, Miss Katherine Bader, Miss Beaf Van Ness, Miss Helen Bomberg, Miss Florence Bart, Miss Irene Bart, Miss Blanche Riordan, Miss Mary Francis, Miss Pearl Curtis, Miss Madeline Brandt, Miss Claire Campbell, Miss Marie Garrett, Miss Janette Garrett and Miss Worthington, who furnished the music; the Messrs. Earl Rakestraw, Arthur Riordan, Francis Chisholm, Walter Carlson, Cy Bendorf, Peaches Hock, George Verkamp, Louis Stevenson, Clarence Pulliam, Joe Hanley, Wm. Chambers, Meriville Mills, Dolf Bader and E. Syms.

Social Service Circle.

Social service circle will meet at home of Mrs. Al Sanford on Tuesday, June 1st. Anyone having clothing to contribute to this organization, kindly bring same to meeting.

A Near Picnic.

What might have been a wonderful outdoor picnic proved to be a most successful indoor affair last Saturday at 1 o'clock at the Stein home on North Leroux street.

The occasion was in the nature of a farewell to Miss Rosemary Reinhold, who left on Monday night for Chicago. Miss Kinsey had arranged the affair which was to have been staged at Turkey Tanks, but as the rain prevented, a lovely indoor affair with nothing omitted, spread on the dining room floor, a feast long to be remembered. When one thinks of dumplings and chicken, ice cream and a wonderful birthday cake, their little cause for regret as to the day or the weather. Ideal in every respect the guests proclaimed it and wished the departing guest the best of luck until her return in the fall. Those enjoying the occasion were Mrs. Bertha Kennedy, Miss Flora Jensen, Miss Lura Kinsey, Miss Freda Linton, Miss Freda Johnson, Miss Anna Gertrude Linney, Miss Mabel Milligan, Miss Alice Snyder, Miss Emma Vandervort, Miss Lydia Akin, Miss Jennie Whipple, Miss Lola Mae Stein and Mrs. Frank Noble.

Memorial Day at The Episcopal Church.

Memorial Day, Sunday, May 30th, will be observed at the Church of the Epiphany by a union memorial service.

Memorial service at 11 a. m. Special music will be rendered by the choir. The sermon will be delivered by the rector, Rev. Luther Moore.

The following local organizations have been invited to this service, and most of them will attend in a body: The Grand Army of the Republic, Confederate Veterans, Spanish-American War Veterans, Mark A. Moore Post No. 3 of the American Legion.

Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion, Battery A, Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of America, Camp-Fire Girls.

A cordial invitation is extended to the general citizenship of our town to attend this community service, and join us in a fitting commemoration of the supreme sacrifice of the soldiery of America.

Special arrangements will be made to provide the utmost seating capacity possible.

The Wedding Ring.

On with your wedding ring, my minister sister, who with tears in your eyes stamped your little foot and said, "For the Cause! I will be no man's chattel!" while you tenderly suspended it around your neck and tucked the ribbon under your blouse.

For the marriage ring is not, where you do not choose to make it so, a sign of bondage. It does not signify your subjection, whether your husband wears one or not. And, according to its original significance, you might prefer that it remain a one-sided tradition!

The use of the ring in the marriage ceremony was introduced by the Egyptians. It implied the endowment upon the bride of all the husband's possessions, and gave to the Egyptian woman the right to issue commands with the same authority as her spouse.

The ring as a symbol has at all times had a dignified and noble connotation. By its form it signifies eternity, and its use in the wedding service is not without this thought.

As a pledge the ring dates back to the ancients, when its delivery signified a transfer of authority and carried with it the power of the donor.

"And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, 'See, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt.'"

"And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand and put it upon Joseph's hand."—Genesis xii, 42, 43.

The Roman bridegroom presented his wife with a ring which she wore on the third finger of her left hand because it was believed that the nerve of that finger ran directly to the heart.

The ring as a marriage token today lacks none of these sentiments, but to the Egyptians we owe the custom and its significance:

"With all my worldly goods I thee endow."

Bridge at Taylor, $12,000.

Total, $150,000.

ARIZONA TO OBSERVE ARRIVAL OF ST. LOUIS NUN 50 YEARS AGO

Travel-stained and weary, six nuns who had braved hundreds of miles of sand and heat on the Southwestern desert, rode into Tucson on the jolting stage from San Diego. That was in 1870, when Indians and white outlaws were the perils of the road. On May 26 of this year, the semicentennial of their coming will be observed in Tucson by Catholics from all parts of the state.

On the morning of that day, the Rt. Rev. Henry Granjon, bishop of Tucson, will celebrate pontifical high mass at St. Augustine's Cathedral. Afterward a jubilee will be held at St. Joseph's academy, founded by the order to which the pioneer nuns belonged.

These pioneers came from the mother house of Carondelet, St. Louis. They traveled down the Mississippi to New Orleans, took ship around the Horn to San Diego and completed their long journey by stage.—St. Louis Post.

MESA MOPS UP MANY MOTOR MANIACS

More than 200 arrests have been made in Mesa in the past 14 days of violators of the ordinance regulating the display of head and tail lights on automobiles, according to a report issued by E. J. Warren, city marshal.

After a ten-day warning, the city police force began their crusade on the tenth of this month and arrests have followed by the dozens, with business brisk, the totals running up to more than a score on a single night.

Six offenders were before the city magistrate yesterday and contributed from $5 to $15 apiece to the coffers. Other arrests will follow, according to the edict of the marshal, until every auto running in Mesa carries its two head lights and tail light burning.

RIO GRANDE RIVER ON ANNUAL SPRING RAMPAGE

The overflow of the Rio Grande river that threatened Albuquerque last night has receded one inch since 4 o'clock this morning and it is believed that the crest of the flood has passed.

The dykes three miles north of the city are holding. Several bridges along the stream have failed and hundreds of acres near here have been flooded. No loss of life is reported. Hundreds of volunteers worked all night on the dykes and many residents in the danger zone abandoned their homes.

IF SHE IS NOT WIFE, WANTS PAY FOR WORK

Sued for divorce on the ground that a sufficient length of time had not elapsed after her supposed husband secured a divorce from his first wife, Annie Horton replies with a counter decree of divorce on the ground of cruelty. She asks further that in case it is decided that L. J. Horton had married her too soon and therefore has a previous wife, that she be paid for working for him during the time of her supposed wedlock. She asks $1,885.92 for such services.

MESA SEEKING A NEW COUNTY

Creation of a new county with Mesa as the county seat, by dividing Maricopa county is revived as a project. An investigating committee appointed by the Mesa Commercial club will meet to discuss the proposal and to compute the probable tax costs, using as basis the assessed valuation of property to be included in the new county and the probable expense of county administration.

HELD UNDER-MANN ACT

Melville C. Butler, who was arrested Saturday night by special agent of the department of justice and charged with a violation of the Mann act, was arraigned before Justice McKee, acting United States commissioner, and held to the federal grand jury in the sum of $2,000 bail. Butler is accused, officers stated, of having transported a woman from Cincinnati to Phoenix, stopping at El Paso and Tucson en route.

FAIRBANKS-PICKFORDS GOING TO HOLBROOK

For the first time in their lives 2500 Indians of the Hopi and Moki tribes, who live in a primitive manner in Arizona, will view a motion picture when Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks visit their reservation Thursday to give a special showing of "The Mollycoddle," Mr. Fairbanks' latest screen play.

The Indians are probably the largest body of American citizens who have yet to view a motion picture. They have been denied this character of entertainment because of the remoteness of their reservation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks with a large party of guests will leave tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. from the Santa Fe station for Holbrook. From there they will cross the desert in an automobile train and stop at Keams Canyon for the night, going thence to the Hopi reservation.

An entire outfit for the showing of the picture, including a special projection machine run by gas, and a screen will be taken along and will be presented to the two Indian tribes by Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks, who will see that the redskins are supplied with pictures in the future.

Not until a month ago had these Indians ever been photographed by a motion-picture camera. The first instance was on the occasion of the arrival of Mr. Fairbanks and his company at the reservation where a location was taken up. It was only after much debate that they consented to allow photographs to be made.

Following the showing of "The Mollycoddle," a picture in which the Indians are prominent, the visiting party will be the guests of the Hopis and Mokis at a fiesta. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks will depart for New York on business connected with the United Artists' Corporation.

Accompanying them to the East will be Mrs. Charlotte Pickford and Miss Lottie Pickford, Kenneth McGaffey and Charley R. Robinson, personal representatives of Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks, respectively.

The rest of the party will return to Los Angeles Sunday evening. They are Mr. and Mrs. John Fairbanks, Mr. and Mrs. Winchell Smith, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Spalding, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morse, Frederick Bechholdt, Roger Lewis, Charles Warrington, William McGann and Leeds Baxter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks expect to return to their studios here the latter part of June.—L. A. Times.

LIVED TOGETHER; GO TO JAIL TOGETHER

Severa Ortiz and Madalina Fernandez were arrested Wednesday for living together without due benefit of clergy. Both admitted the charge before Justice of the Peace R. J. Kidd. When asked if they did not want to get married, the man was willing, but the woman wasn't. She said Ortiz had too bad a temper, though she admitted that she had put up with him for a couple of years. So the judge fined them each $50 and sent both to the county jail for six months.

SAY, BOYS! LISTEN HERE

Joe Roth, the Santa Fe box car band leader who used to live in and about these parts, but who now infests Winslow, hands out the following cheer for the baseball team at Winslow: "Say," sezze, "I see you are boosting your ball team quite a bit. Just tell the boys in a quiet way to look our boys over when they come to play and bring their bank accounts with them, as we are looking for easy money." It listens like he thinks nix on our battling Battery A boys.

TRAINLOADS OF SHEEP COME TO HOLBROOK

Thousands upon thousands of sheep are coming in constantly to Holbrook from the Salt River Valley sections and then taken up to the grazing lands to the south. There is plenty of grass here now and the sheepmen know it, while in the southern part of the state things are pretty well dried up, thus furnishing little feed for stock. This year is to be one of the banner years for Navajo and Apache counties, and those who have large flocks of sheep are sure to make big money. Large numbers are arriving almost daily on the Santa Fe railway, and they are then taken off at Holbrook and driven to the ranges, where they will remain until winter sets in or they are marketed.—Holbrook Tribune.

TWO KILLED IN WRECK

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—Santa Fe passenger train No. 808, due to arrive here at 6:30 p. m., was wrecked at La Jola, 52 miles south of here, due to soft track resulting from high water, according to a report received here.

The engineer and fireman were killed and about thirty passengers injured. All of the cars were reported to be lying on their sides in the water. A special train with doctors and nurses has been ordered to the scene from Socorro, and the wrecker has been ordered from Belen, which will also take all available doctors from here. The train left El Paso this morning.

WANTS NAMES OF ALL TEMPE NORMAL GRADUATES

It is desired to bring the records of the Tempe Normal school down to date, and for this purpose it is necessary to secure the present name and home address of every graduate of the institution.

It is hoped that prompt replies may be received, furnishing these facts and such other information as may be of interest. Address, A. J. Matthews, president, Tempe Normal School, Tempe, Arizona.

MOTHER BURNS FEET OF CHILD WHO DISOBEYED HER

To punish her 7-year-old daughter, Concha, for disobedience, Mrs. Augustine Oliva, wife of a cotton picker in the Scottsdale district, near Phoenix, is alleged to have held her daughter's feet in a trash fire and wrapped burning clothes about them. The child's screams attracted other Mexicans who summoned a deputy sheriff to the scene. The woman told officers, they said, that she did the act to punish the child because she had refused to draw a bucket of water. The child said she had been tortured on one previous occasion. She is in a local hospital.

BOOST FOR NORMAL BOOSTER

H. E. Hendrix, of the Flagstaff normal school, gave a rousing good talk in assembly Friday morning. He was one of the best speakers we have had this year and had an unflinching store of wit and good humor, consequently all the students "fell for him" and declared if all the normal school was just like him, they would not object to attending.—Wilcox News.
